

A lot of professional coaches and speakers are good at “talking the talk”, but they’ve never actually “walked the walk” in the real world of business and finance. Consequently, the advice they can offer is limited at best. Garrett is someone who knows what it takes to be successful in both philosophical and practical terms.

As a successful entrepreneur who started his first company at the age of 15 and became a multi-millionaire business owner by the age of twenty-six, Garrett Gunderson is one of those rare motivational speaker’s who has actually successfully applied the principles and practices that he shares with others.

Garrett is a winner of Utah's Young Entrepreneur of the Year award. He has founded several prosperous companies, including an Inc 500 financial firm that was named by The Utah Fast 50 program as one of the top companies in the state for entrepreneurial spirit, innovative business tactics and skyrocketing revenue growth.

Garrett is the author of the revolutionary financial book Killing Sacred Cows, a New York Times bestseller. He is also the creator of the popular New Rules to Get Rich program distributed via Nightingale Conant. Garrett loves inspiring others to turn their potential into production. His many popular media appearances include prime-time television, magazines, newspaper articles, and radio interviews.

As a finance and business productivity coach, Garrett instructs both large and small groups of business owners and financial service professionals nationwide. He also regularly provides value for companies as a keynote speaker for annual events, client appreciation events, company retreats, and workshops. As a speaker with a true passion for empowering others, Garrett is dedicated to helping individuals and groups find their purpose and passion through lasting principles, as well as a deeper understanding of the true meaning of money and wealth.